INDUSTRIAL BANQUET

FIFTY GLENDALE MEN DISCUSS MILLION DOLLAR INDUSTRIAL PROJECT

An industrial banquet was held at the Masonic Temple, Glendale, Wednesday evening, at 6:30 o'clock, under the direction of Roy L. Kent, chairman of the industrial committee of the Greater Glendale Development Association.

The dinner was served by the ladies of the M. E. Church and the enthusiastic applause given at the close of the meal when the chairman asked that a vote of thanks be tendered the ladies for their excellent service, was sufficient evidence that their work was satisfactorily performed.

Chairman Kent in his introductory remarks at the opening of the after-dinner program, said: "We are here to arrive at the conclusion of Glendale's intention to foster industrial projects." He said: "Industries have been knocking at our door and we have turned a deaf ear to their call. About two years ago no heed was given to an offer that a cannery factory could be located here. Upon Glendale's refusal to consider the proposition the company selected San Fernando as the seat of operations and now the cannery at that place is one of the largest in Southern California.

"A few years ago we remained silent while our sister city, Burbank, arranged for the location of the Moreland Truck factory in their city, and although the work of erecting factory buildings was delayed during the war, the enterprise is now going forward with the promised success."

Mr. Kent informed those present that he had recently put three weeks of hard work on what he considered a worthy industrial proposition that could be gotten to locate in Glendale that would necessitate the building of 500 more dwelling houses in our city at once. Mr. Kent said that what would become the greatest moving picture plant in the world, properly officered and financed, was seeking a location in Glendale in preference to any other city in the Southland. Glendale has been chosen by this company on account of the adaptability of her scenery and climate. Thirty acres of land are needed on which to erect the studios and factories and the citizens of Glendale are asked to purchase certificates of stock equal to one-half the cost of the land which would approximately be $22,500. Mr. Kent said that the contract for the sale of the stock had been drawn up by Attorney C. L. Chandler of our own city and the provisions in the con-

BOY THIEF ESCAPES

ARRESTED IN GLENDALE FOR AUTO THEFT HE ELUDES OFFICERS AT VAN NUYS

A Los Angeles boy, Don Lewis Clauer, who with a companion named Benjamin Garcia escaped from Juvenile Hall in that city about noon October 13th, has been giving police officers of Glendale some excitement and employment. Tuesday night he was arrested by Captain Stanley who observed him and Garcia meddling with a machine parked at the Palace Grand. In answer to his inquiries they represented it was the auto of relatives of theirs, who were attending the show, but when he began to look for the number and investigate they started away. He followed and overtook them at the corner of Wilson and Brand where they were attempting to crank a car parked there. While he was arresting Clausen the other boy got away. The stalled car proved to be a Ford roadster registered in the name of Rosefield, 1612 East Twelfth street, Oakland, and later in the evening after it had been taken to police headquarters and after the Los Angeles police department had been notified, James E. Davis, of Kingsley Drive, came out and satisfied the officers he was entitled to the car. It belonged, he said, to James D. Rosefield, of the Animal Food Company, which he represents in this territory. In the car was found considerable property including three auto robes which are now at the City Hall and a few articles identified by Mr. Davis as belonging to him, but a sample case which he said was in the car when he left it, was missing. When interrogated in regard to it Clausen told of leaving it near some drug store at Prospect and Hollywood boulevard. The robes are supposed to have been lifted from machines parked at the Bimini Baths where the boys stopped on their way to Glendale.

ROYAL VISITORS

OFFICIAL GREETINGS TO BE GIVEN KING AND QUEEN OF BELGIUM, LOUISE AND BROADWAY

Not all of the details have been worked out for the brief greeting and reception which Glendale is endeavoring to give King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium when they pass through our city Friday morning at eleven o'clock, with the Crown Prince and Princess, the royal escort, Frank Whitlock, American Ambassador and Belgium Relief Commissioner; Chas. Winsel, Belgian Consul in Los Angeles who resides in Glendale, and other notables who will be in the party.

Plans thus far matured provide for members of the Board of Trustees and the heads of several city organizations to go in autos to Los Feliz Road to meet the party and conduct it to the assembling point, which will be at the intersection of Louise and Broadway, where a small platform will be erected on the northeast corner. From there singing by the school children and others will be led by Prof. Hugo Kirchoffer, leader of Glendale's Community Sing. Greetings will also be extended there to the King and royal party by Mayor Frank Muhleman, and a bouquet of choice dahlias, grown in Glendale, will be presented to the Queen by the head of one of the leading women's organizations of the city.

Belgians of the city are requested to gather in front of Pulliam's Undertaking establishment where a special place will be reserved for them.

Traffic will be suspended on Broadway between Maryland and Glendale avenues from 10:30 to 11:30 and the space nearest the car track in front of the platform on Broadway and extending east from Louise will be reserved for the school children. Those who desire to see the party from automobiles may park them along the east side of Brand from Los Feliz Road north to Broadway.

The reception committee will include Mayor Muhleman and Trustees Woodberry, Shaw, Henry and Jackson; A. T. Cowan and H. P. Coker, Chamber of Commerce; N. C. Wells and C. D. Lusby, Greater Glendale Development Association; Mrs. H. E. Bartlett, chairman Glendale Chapter American Red Cross; Mrs. A. W. Tower, president of the Tuesday Afternoon Club; Mrs. A. A. Barton, representing Parent-Teacher Federation; Mrs. E. V. Bacon, presi-

FORMER MEMBERS' DAY

NINETY-FIVE LADIES GATHER AT MEETING OF MUTUAL BENEFIT READING CIRCLE

"Former Members' day was observed yesterday at the Mutual Benefit Reading Circle's regular meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Charles H. Toll. About ninety-five were present including three distinguished visitors, viz: Mrs. Noble of Los Angeles, membership chairman of the National Congress of Mothers and P.T.A. federation; Mrs. McAllister of San Antonio, Tex., national secretary and Dr. Jessie A. Russell of this city, state president. Mrs. Toll called upon Mrs. McAllister for a few words and she told of organizing the first mothers' club in San Antonio. She brought out the fact that the eight women who joined Mrs. Theodore Birney in organizing the original Congress of Mothers were the mothers of forty children, thus disposing of the charge that the Congress has been made up of women who know little about parenthood. Mrs. McAllister is a sweet, motherly little woman who made a very favorable impression. She emphasized the point that it is the work the organizations are doing that is the big thing and said the Reading Circle is efficiently carrying out the purpose of the Congress of Mothers. She quoted Mrs. Birney to the effect that "if all the sons of childhood were raised in one mighty sob, all the earth would tremble." She paid tribute to Mrs. Phoebe Hearst who was the first to open her house to Mrs. Birney and who financed the work in the state until 1898. Mrs. Noble then spoke a few words of appreciation and said she was proud to be a Californian when she saw the work the Reading Circle is doing. Dr. Russell congratulated the Circle and announced that the convention of the National Congress of Mothers will be held in Los Angeles in May and said she would endeavor to secure recognition of the Reading Circle by that body. Mrs. Toll graciously thanked the special guests for their presence and for the encouraging messages they brought.

PACKERS DOMINATING GROCERIES

REPORT OF FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION SHOWS THEY HANDLE 200 FOODS NOT ALLIED WITH MEATS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, October 16.—The Federal Trade commission today submitted to the president a report charging that the "Big Five" packers threaten to dominate the wholesale grocery business. The report declared that 200 foods not allied with the meat industry are handled by the packers. It charged that the packers have divided the food specialty market and each is concentrating on the control of certain lines. Among other special instances cited the report said that Armour & Company now handle 184 soda-fountain preparations and nineteen soda-fountain utensils.

BY OVERWHELMING VOTE HOUSE CARRIES OUT RECOMMENDATION OF SECRETARY LANSING

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, October 16.—With government reports showing that alien radical agitators are the cause of unrest in all parts of the country, the House today voted overwhelmingly to continue for one year after the conclusion of peace, the war-time passport restrictions as suggested by Secretary Lansing. The restrictions require that all aliens must show conclusively their legitimate purpose before being allowed to enter the United States.

WILL VOTE AGAINST SHANTUNG AMENDMENT

SENATOR PHelan OF CALIFORNIA WOULD HAVE JAPAN EXPAND IN SHANTUNG RATHER THAN AMERICA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, October 16.—With a vote on the Shantung amendment to the peace treaty expected before night, Senator Phelan of California, addressing the Senate today, declared that he will vote against the amendment in order to preserve California from Japanese aggression. He declared: "If Japan must expand, her expansion in Shantung by agreement with China is more agreeable than her expansion in America either North or South. He also declared: "Japan is making a real conquest of the United States although unaccompanied as yet by the tramp of marching troops or the salvos of naval guns." He insisted that this conquest should be diverted to Asia.

DEMOCRACY OF KING ALBERT

BREAKFASTS IN OPEN AT MARIPOSA GROVE DRINKING COFFEE MADE BY RANGER LLOYD

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

YOSEMITE, Cal., October 16.—King Albert of Belgium started early this morning for an all-day picnic in the Mariposa grove of big trees. He breakfasted in the open this morning, drinking coffee made by a forest ranger, James Lloyd. After drinking the coffee the king asked that he be permitted to make the acquaintance of Lloyd. "The coffee is excellent," the king told the ranger. "It is just the same as I make every day," Lloyd replied. "There are rangers in this forest who make better coffee than I do."

The queen was indisposed this morning and remained late at Glacier Point hotel but will rejoin the party during the day. The king and his party are due in Los Angeles tomorrow morning.

PRESIDENT INCREASINGLY BETTER

HAS GOOD NIGHT—DISCOMFORT HE HAS BEEN SUFFERING HAS BEEN RELIEVED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, October 16.—Admiral Grayson issued the following statement of the president's condition today: "The discomfort which the president has suffered for two days has been relieved to a very great extent. He had a good night. His temperature, pulse, respiration and kidney functions continue normal."

"FLYING PARSON" HAS MISHAP

FORCED DOWN AT WAHOO, NEBRASKA, BY BROKEN CRANK SHAFT—WAS NOT HURT

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

OMAHA, October 16.—After arriving at St. Paul, Nebraska, this morning at 10:47 o'clock, Lieut. Maynard, the "flying parson," was forced down at Wahoo, Nebraska by a broken crank shaft. Army trucks from Omaha were sent to give him help. Lieut. Maynard was not hurt.

TO AVERT A SUGAR FAMINE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, October 16.—In order to avert a sugar famine in the United States, Representative Dallinger of Massachusetts introduced in the House today a bill forbidding the exportation of sugar.

MR. KIRK IN EAST

ENJOYS TRIP TO NEW YORK AND WASHINGTON AT AGENCY'S EXPENSE

Washington, D. C., Oct. 8, '19.

Dear "News":— As a number of my friends seemed to enjoy the letters I wrote to the "News" on my last journey to the East five years ago, I am constrained to send you two or three more while I am on this trip, as it will be more extensive than my last and will include New York, Philadelphia and Washington, cities of interest to everybody.

I may say that this trip is practically all for rest and change and is taken at the expense of our Agency, having been earned by volume of business produced.

Leaving Los Angeles on the Santa Fe Limited in the morning of the 3d we had an uneventful trip to Chicago—howbeit a most pleasant one—the best I have ever had—the recent rains having cooled the weather and laid the dust across the desert so that traveling was a delight. I never appreciated till now, the service we have to and from California on the Santa Fe. What with polite porters and waiters, the unequalled "eats" of Fred Harvey's dining-cars and oil-burning locomotives, there is nothing like it in the country—it is absolutely perfect.

On our train were three beautiful girls, who, by their lady-like ness and sweetness, were the cynosure of every passenger aboard. On meeting their parents, who were most attractive-looking folks, I found that they were Dr. and Mrs. Guy S. Van Alstine, the former of Westley Memorial Hospital in Chicago, who were just returning home. (Continued on Page 4)

ENTERTAINS PATRONS

PARENTS OF HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS ATTEND ASSEMBLY OF STUDENT BODY

The reception to patrons and meeting of the High School Parent-Teacher Association at the High School Wednesday afternoon was largely attended by the parents of students, quite a number of the fathers being present when guests were admitted to the regular assembly of the Student Body and given an opportunity to see how it dispatches business. An animated discussion was on in regard to the sending of representatives of the organization to the Student Body Convention to be held at Stockton and it afforded an excellent opportunity to observe the behavior of the young people when called to their feet to endorse or oppose a measure.

Following this session, guests adjourned to the cafeteria where a business meeting was held at which officers were elected to fill vacancies in the official roster. J. Rhea Baker, head of the High School Commercial Department, was made the auditor of the association; Mrs. A. L. Morgan, treasurer; Mrs. Charles Hutchinson, parliamentarian. Other officers previously elected were Mrs. George U. Moyse, president, and Mrs. R. T. Burr, secretary.

It was the first session at which Mrs. Moyse had presided. She was greeted with enthusiasm and she responded with a brief address which was very much to the point and in which she said the great aim of the association would be the stimulation of interest on the part of parents in the work their children are doing in the high school and the needs of the school. Also, she announced that it would be the policy of the association to begin and close on time and to make the sessions brief, because she realized that all the members are busy women who cannot afford to lose time. A decision was reached to meet the third Wednesday in each month with a social gathering from 3:15 to 4 o'clock and a business session from 4 to 4:30. She explained that the great purpose in inviting parents to attend the assembly had been to give them an opportunity to see how greatly a new and larger auditorium is needed by the school. In order that guests might be seated the students stood in the back of the room and also lined the walls and crowded the doorways. The enrollment this year far exceeds the seating capacity of the auditorium.

Before and after the session in the cafeteria tea and wafers were served. It was one of the largest meetings the association has ever held and one of the most enthusiastic.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Friday. No important change in temperature.

LEAGUE OF CITIES

GLENDALE TO BE PROMINENT IN CONVENTION OF CALIFORNIA MUNICIPALITIES

Glendale's representatives have been given a prominent place in the program which has been arranged for the twenty-first convention of the League of California Municipalities to be held at the Glenwood Mission Inn, Riverside, October 20th to 24th. At the round-table luncheon for city attorneys W. E. Evans, our municipal legal adviser, will preside. Tuesday afternoon at the assembly of the whole body an address entitled "The City's Part in Reducing the High Cost of Living" will be made by Frederick Baker who will represent Avalon, Azusa and Sierra Madre, but who lives in Glendale. "The City Manager Form of Government as We Have It in Glendale" will be presented by Frank L. Muhleman, president of our Board of Trustees, Wednesday afternoon, and at the special session for clerks, auditors and assessors Wednesday morning. D. S. Phillips, Glendale's City Auditor, will read a paper on "Auditing a Public Service Department." T. W. Watson, City Manager of Glendale, will show at the Thursday morning session "The Advantage to Cities of Doing Their Own Street Work."

DR. AND MRS. BROWN GO NORTH

Dr. and Mrs. H. V. Brown of 337 North Central avenue are leaving today, Wednesday, on an auto journey to San Francisco. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Daniel Campbell of this city and will stop at Santa Cruz to attend the Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star, of which Mrs. Campbell is Grand Chaplain. Mrs. Campbell will leave them at that point and the Browns will go on to San Francisco and Sacramento to attend the meeting of the State Board of Medical Examiners of which the doctor is a member. Its president, Dr. P. T. Phillips, and his wife, reside in Santa Cruz and will be their hosts while in that city. They expect to be gone about two weeks.

MOUNTAIN HIKE

Several young ladies residing in the southern part of Glendale enjoyed a hike to Sturtevant's camp over the week-end and had a jolly time despite one or two mishaps. Miss Ida Wilbur fell into the icy water of the mountain stream and was extricated with some difficulty by Miss Helen Searle, a member of the party. Miss Helen Hartwig soon after returning home developed a severe case of poison oak and has been confined to her bed ever since. Otherwise the excursion was a great success. The members of the party were Misses Norma Wallace, Helen Searle, Ida Wilbur, Ernestine Olmstead, Helena Richardson, Frances Goldsberg and Anna Miller. They were chaperoned by Mrs. Bobbin and Mrs. Cummings of Los Angeles.

R. M. McGEE RETURNS AFTER VISIT WITH RELATIVES IN THE MIDDLE WEST

Robert M. McGee has returned from the east and is once more behind the counter at the dry goods store on East Broadway. He makes a very good impersonation of a contented man. Along this line of information he says that after he once turned his face westward the train couldn't carry him quick enough and if he had had a reasonable excuse he would have started sooner. He visited his own friends and relatives and those of Mrs. McGee in Southern Illinois and Eastern Kentucky. Many of them are farmers all of whom, he says, are getting rich for prices there on many commodities are higher than here. Apples on the fruit stands in Paducah were priced at two for 15¢ and the best apples were bringing $8 per barrel at the orchard. Sweet potatoes when they first appeared brought $3.50 per bushel. Eggs, however, were less than here, 45¢ per dozen, and butter 45¢ per pound. Clover seed sold at an astonishing figure, viz., $30 per bushel. Mr. McGee said he had handled it in days gone by for $3.50 per bushel. The weather was a little warm when he first got there, but was delightful after the first shower of rain. It is a lovely country, he says, but California still looks good to him.

Mrs. M. L. Roderick, of 401 West Colorado street, has returned from an outing of several days' duration at the beach.

NEW DUTY FOR THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE

If the League of Nations is approved and begins to function, the electoral college may have a new job. But the assignment of new duties to that purely formal institution will scarcely result in transforming it into the deliberative body which the makers of the constitution intended.

Senator Ashurst has introduced a bill prescribing the methods by which the representative of the United States in the council and the three representatives in the assembly of the League of Nations are to be chosen. If the bill should pass in its present form, the first representatives would be appointed by the president by and with the advice of the senate. Their terms of office would expire with that of the president, and after their successors would be chosen by the electoral college. The electors would vote for them immediately after they had voted for president and vice-president, and doubtless the results would be forwarded from each state capitol in the same way. Those receiving the highest number would be declared elected, and in case of a tie vote the house of representatives in such manner as it saw fit would immediately elect.

Possibly, under the Ashurst plan, the national political conventions would nominate candidates for these places, just as they do for president and vice-president, and the members of the electoral college would merely register the decision of their constituents.

Our single representative in the council would occupy a position of great dignity and responsibility. He will be one of nine men to whom the peace and safety of the world will be largely confided. He will speak, of course, with the voice of the republic, and it is fitting that he should be chosen with the same care that the president himself is chosen. He should be our ablest diplomat, our trusted statesman.

The three representatives in the assembly will hold honorable, if not highly important places. The assembly is not expected to be an executive body so much as an advisory body to the council—the custodian of the world's conscience, as Mr. Wilson delights to phrase it. It will furnish representation to all members of the league, while but nine will be represented in the council.

Senator Ashurst's bill went to the foreign relations committee, and the intention is to pass whatever measures is agreed upon immediately after the ratification of the treaty.—Minneapolis Journal.

Miss Lillian Ortmann of Topeka, Kansas, is the guest of Mrs. A. J. Maxwell on North Maryland avenue.

Mrs. Theobald of 312 West Acacia went to the Westlake Hospital in Los Angeles last Thursday to undergo a serious operation. She came through the ordeal in excellent condition and at last accounts was doing nicely.

Covers were laid for about forty at the regular weekly supper served at the Christian Church Wednesday evening. Missionary work was the subject of discussion under the theme, "The Outlook for Missionary Work in Latin-America."

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Easton, who some months ago sold their restaurant and rooming house in Glendale and purchased a restaurant on West Third street in Los Angeles, have again sold and are taking trips to San Diego, the Imperial Valley and other points looking for a location.

J. M. Fulton, Assistant General Freight and Passenger agent of the Southern Pacific with headquarters at Reno, Nevada is in Glendale visiting his niece, Mrs. A. E. Ricksecker of 237 S. Kenwood street. Mr. Fulton was selected by the Southern Pacific to escort King Albert, Queen Elizabeth and Prince Leopold of Belgium over the lines of that road from Salt Lake City to Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Henke and daughter are leaving today for Dallas, Texas. Mr. Henke goes as one of the incorporators of the Gurberson Oil Well Specialty Corporation. They have built a large factory the past summer and will manufacture oil specialties. Mr. Henke will have entire charge of the books. Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Dietrich, parents of Mrs. Henke, will make Glendale their permanent home.

MRS GLOVER ENTERTAINS

SPORTING NEWS

INTERESTING BALL GAMES WEDNESDAY ON SCHOOL FIELDS

Wednesday was quite eventful in local sporting circles, on the various school fields. In Division 1 of the Soccer league, Central avenue and the Intermediate Tigers played a scoreless game, viz: nothing to nothing. That brought about a rather unusual situation in Division 1 in which every team now playing is tied for first place. The teams are: Central avenue, Columbus avenue, Intermediate Tigers and Intermediate Angels.

In Division 2, the Broadway team defeated the Cerritos avenue boys with a score of one to nothing. Arnold Cushman, Captain of the Broadway team took the first goal. That victory left Pacific avenue and the Broadway school tied for first place.

The big interest of the afternoon was the game between the first soccer football team of Intermediate and the High School freshmen. It ended in a score of one to nothing. Tom Morgan, Captain of the Freshmen kicked the goal. That team also included Fred Sasley and Horatio Butts who made such fine records last year in the games of the Intermediate. In the first team of Intermediate this year are the boys who were on the second team last year including Theodore Haig, captain; Leslie Ladelle, Charles Johnson and Gordon Kingsley. Last summer, it will be remembered, practically the whole first soccer team of the school was graduated and went to Glendale High to swell the soil has wonderful growing properties.

Dean & Co. have a show window of fruits and vegetables raised in Tujunga. Many people think nothing can be grown here but this is a mistake for when cleared of rocks the soil has wonderful growing properties.

Jack Catt and wife were callers on Wednesday. He has just returned from Siberia and looks well.

John A. Pirtle and wife of Los Angeles have rented Miss Gilbert's bungalow on Sunset boulevard.

Last Sunday night at Bolton hall, there were some very interesting screen pictures, showing the work of the Y. M. C. A. both in this country and in Europe during the war. D. A. Johnston gave an entertaining talk on the subject. Mrs. D. A. Johnston is primary teacher at the Glorieta school.

Harry MacBain, Clyde L. Morrison and Dr. T. C. Young, and a party of congenital nimrods left in the wee hours in order to be among the first to take advantage of the opening of the duck season. They expect to be gone until Monday.

tured the girls' prize and Leslie Buck that for boys. After the judging, coffee and sandwiches were served. The floor was cleared and dancing was indulged in until nearly midnight. Everybody says they enjoyed themselves and hope the ladies will give another party soon. The money taken in for sandwiches and coffee more than paid the evening expenses.

Last Sunday was a busy day for the Home Extension Real Estate men. A large number of people came up from Los Angeles and 67 lots were sold. Up to the present time over 400 lots have been sold, and new subdivisions are being plotted. These do not include other places of one-fourth or half acres sold not handled by the company. A number of buyers have already begun clearing the land to put up houses.

R. O. Rutherford of Los Angeles has purchased the property of W. O. Trout on Hillcrest Drive, and his family are here to remain.

Mrs. Helen Nickerson purchased the Haigh place on Wednesday and will come here to live. Both places were purchased through Dean & Co.

Friends of Elizabeth Brissenden have received news of her marriage to a Russian Socialist, Benjamin Miller, who is actively engaged in the work.

Dean & Co. have a show window of fruits and vegetables raised in Tujunga. Many people think nothing can be grown here but this is a mistake for when cleared of rocks the soil has wonderful growing properties.

The larger sum is anything but exorbitant, however difficult it may be to estimate the value of a state.

The payment of any amount would supplement the "confession" referred to. It is certain that there would have been war between the two countries had Colombia been in a position to wage it.

What is worth doing is worth doing well. An amende honorable as well as financial was due. Acknowledgment that a wrong was committed is to be expressed in terms of money. It would have cost less had the expense been supplemented by a frank and full admission, but the advantage of settlement is that it settles. This one is belated and—ungracious.—Brooklyn Eagle.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The undersigned announce to the people of Glendale and vicinity that they have purchased the stock and good will of the Glendale Furniture Store, 606-608 East Broadway, Glendale.

We have a very complete line of Household Furnishings.

We buy and sell used furniture.

We assure the public continued fair dealing and fair prices and solicit your esteemed patronage.

FINAL SETTLEMENT MADE FOR PANAMA

A settlement with Colombia is to be effected at an expense of $25,000,000. It will be accepted by the recipient as compensation for the loss of a commonwealth. It will close an "incident" upon which the curtain should have fallen long ago. No expressions of regret are to accompany the payment.

Theodore Roosevelt "confessed judgment" when he said he "took Panama," which state Colombia sought to retain. Settlement, with expressions of regret, could have been effected for $15,000,000. Perhaps their elimination is worth the difference between that amount and price to be paid. Perhaps not.

The larger sum is anything but exorbitant, however difficult it may be to estimate the value of a state.

FRESH COACHELLA VALLEY DATES

Fresh dates just packed in the Coachella Valley, California are an ideal confection. Their flavor far surpasses that of the stale and sticky fruit packed in the far east with which we had to content ourselves, when we wanted dates, until recent years.

As delicious and satisfying as the choicest of sweets, Coachella Valley dates lack the harmful effects of candy—in fact they constitute a nourishing and health-giving food, as well as a confection.

Give Coachella Valley Dates to the children. They crave sweets and you hesitate to give them candy. They will be delighted with the substitution.

Give Coachella Valley Dates to the invalid who is on a diet. They will take the place of other sweets which are denied.

Eat Coachella Dates yourself and serve them to your guests when you wish something particularly choice.

Include a box or two of Coachella Dates in the next package you send to your eastern friends. The successful growing of Dates in California is so new that they will be enjoyed for their novelty as well as for their delicious flavor.

dent Thursday Afternoon Club; Mrs. Charles H. Toll, representing Mutual Improvement Reading Circle; J. A. Thayer, Commander of N. P. Banks Post, G. A. R.; Mrs. L. C. Peckham, president Woman's Relief Corps of N. P. Banks Post; Commander A. J. Van Wie, Sons of Veterans; Mrs. J. H. Braly, Regent of Richard Gridley Chapter, D. A. R.; James McBryde, Commander Glendale Camp of American Defenders, Loyal Legion, and probably the representatives of other organizations.

L. S. Pilcher, of Los Angeles, who is the advance agent of the Los Angeles Reception Committee, visited Glendale yesterday and approved the plans made. He also left folders containing old and new patriotic songs and familiar lyrics. He suggested that when the royal party arrives at the assembling point the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" or some other suitable song be sung which is not a national air which would require the King and Queen to stand at attention. Mr. Pilcher approved all the arrangements. He is furnishing some flags to be carried by school children and urges the display of flags in autos and along the route to be traversed, both the Stars and Stripes and flags of the Allies. Mr. Pilcher is a leader of Community Singing and is heading a movement in Los Angeles to specially train leaders for that work.

Arrangement of Schools

School pupils participating in the reception will be massed at the intersection of Broadway and Louise as follows: South of Broadway the High School, north of Broadway the Intermediate. At the intersection of Broadway and Kenwood will be other groups. On the south of Broadway will be Cerritos avenue and Pacific avenue schools, on the north Central avenue and Columbus. At the intersection of Broadway and Jackson will be still another group. On the south side will be Colorado and Acacia and on the north Broadway, Doran and Magnolia schools. Broadway for two blocks east of Louise will be lined with groups of children carrying Belgian flags.

Song Program

The song program will be carried out at the central meeting place at Louise and Broadway by High school and Intermediate pupils under the leadership of Prof. Kirchoffer. The list of songs selected is as follows:

Battle Hymn of the Republic.
Dixie.

I Love You California.
Old Folks at Home.
Over There.

Till We Meet Again.
Long, Long Trail.
Keep the Home Fires Burning.
I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles.

Smiles.
Greeting and Farewell—"Vive la Belgique."

The Royal Party

From parties well posted in regard to the arrangements which have been made by the Los Angeles committee of arrangements for the reception of King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium, it is learned that the royal party which will pass through Glendale enroute to the home of Mrs. Anita Baldwin where it will be entertained at luncheon, will be conveyed in about twelve automobiles. The King will be attended by Mayor Snyder during the Los Angeles parade, who may accompany His Royal Highness to this city. With Crown Prince Leopold, Duke of Brabant, will ride Mr. Blanchard, chairman of the Los Angeles reception committee. Queen Elizabeth will be attended by Mrs. Anita Baldwin. With the Belgian ambassador, Baron de Cartier Marchenne will ride Charles Winsel of this city who is the Belgian consul in Los Angeles.

Decorated by Queen

A feature of outstanding interest in the reception of King Albert and Queen Elizabeth on their arrival in Los Angeles at the Southern Pacific station will be the personal decoration of six women of Southern California who were very active in Belgian relief work. One of these ladies is Mrs. Charles Winsel of Glendale, wife of the Belgian consul, the other five being Mesdames Anita Baldwin, John Lynch, Michael Creamer, John Treanor and Katherine Watson. Nineteen other women of Southern California are to receive similar decorations but not from the personal hand of the Queen. For his efficient work Mr. Winsel has already received the decoration of the Order of King Leopold.

tract were such that a subscriber would not lose a cent of the money invested, but would undoubtedly get handsome returns from his investment.

At this juncture Mr. Kent introduced B. L. Young, of Los Angeles, who is prominently connected with the industrial activities of Southern California, who has been the means of bringing so many worthy industries from the East to the Pacific Coast the past few years. Mr. Young was no stranger to a Glendale audience as he appeared before the members of the local industrial board at a similar meeting last April.

The gentleman assured his audience that Southern California is destined to become the greatest manufacturing center in the world, and as a verification of this statement referred to the location of the Good-year Rubber Company in Los Angeles, and the prospects of great steel factories soon locating in the Southland.

Mr. Young explained that the moving picture studio planning to establish itself in Glendale would require an area of 30 acres; 13 acres of which would be occupied by 32 studios. There would be an immediate expenditure of $750,000 for building and 1200 people would be given employment from the beginning. The studios would be occupied by the greatest companies in the world and the most noted actors would be connected with these companies.

All furniture and fixtures for use in the Glendale studios and for many outside studios would be manufactured in Glendale in a mammoth factory constructed for that purpose. Mr. Young then introduced Leon Spinak, the noted architect and designer who has prepared the plans for the finest theaters in the United States and France. It is this noted artist who would design the plans for the buildings and furniture for the proposed Glendale plant.

R. E. Olin, assistant manager for the Fox Studios, was present, and verified the statements Mr. Young made concerning Mr. Spinak.

George A. McDaniel, the noted actor, was also present. It will be remembered that Mr. McDaniel was the star actor in the "Shepherd of the Hills."

Before adjournment about $10,000 of the stock was subscribed for and adjournment was made until 5 o'clock p. m. today (Thursday), at Judge Miller's office, 109 S. Brand boulevard, when it is hoped the additional stock will be taken up.

AN EPISODE IN REAL LIFE

Sweet Sugar Serial

Yesterday a gentleman drove up to BOOTH'S STORE, and said: "I want some sugar." He was a perfect stranger, so Booth asked him if there was anything else he needed in Groceries, as the Government Conservation Committee wants grocers to co-operate in trying to save the sugar by preventing hoarding. "No," the man said, "I only want Sugar." So Booth asked him where he bought his groceries, so he said from one of those Higgidy-Piggidy, Topsy Turvy, cash-and-carry stores. Well then Booth said that's where you ought to get your sugar. Why, he said they won't let me have only two pounds. Well, Booth said, I'm sorry, but I have to give my own customers preference first and see that they get their supplies before strangers.

Moral: Do your shopping with a steady grocer instead of running about to try and save a penny. Then you can get favors and accommodations now and again, where you could not otherwise. Shop with BOOTH, THE RELIABLE GROCER, who sells FOR LESS and delivers.

It seemed a shame that I was not able to see the third game of the championship series which was played in Chicago that afternoon, but I couldn't arrange it, although seeing the crowds both going and coming and having a view of the interior of the Park after the game. The feeling in Chicago was that the Reds deserved to win after their struggle of 50 years for a pennant, so there were few regrets at the defeat of the Sox.

One of the sights which brought up pleasant memories was a view of Jackson Park, where the old "Manufacturers' Building" still remains as a reminder of the beautiful White

The car with which the boys were meddled when discovered by Capt. Stanley was the property of A. F. Priest, the architect, of 1422 North Central avenue. After his arrest Clauser represented that he and his companion were merely seeking to steal tools from it, but Mr. Priest who later reported at the station said that the lock had been so tampered with that it was necessary to hacksaw it in order to drive the machine out. And then Clauser admitted it had been their purpose to steal the car.

In the course of his examination Clauser betrayed the fact that after escaping from Juvenile Hall on the 13th and getting hold of a little money from the sale of sacks they stole from a peddler, they came to Glendale and to the Glendale Stables owned by Mrs. Weston on Glendale avenue where they rented two horses for two hours, paying for them in advance. These they rode to Cahuenga Pass, where, according to Clauser's story, they spent the night on a camping ground. The next day they took the horses saddled and bridled into a peach orchard near the Van Nuys depot, removed the saddle and turned the animals loose. They then jumped a freight and went to Los Angeles where they hung around the yards until evening, then going up town. From one car they stole a key and with the Rosefield car which they stole at 6 p. m. on Grand avenue between Sixth and Seventh, they came to Glendale.

When in the course of Tuesday evening Desk Sergeant Van Wie was able to get into communication with Juvenile Hall, the information that the two boys had escaped from there was confirmed and the further statement was made that Clauser was "a bad one and should be watched." After Judge Lowe had been consulted Officer Trautwein conducted the prisoner to Fire Station No. 1, where he passed the night in confinement.

Wednesday morning Chief Lampert, Mrs. Weston and some men in her employ went with Clauser to Van Nuys to recover the horses, saddles, etc., if possible, and while the animals were being captured in an orchard the prisoner got away and disappeared so effectually that he was not recovered although the chief and the men with him beat about the forty-acre orchard for two hours or more in the search.

By this time he has probably established connections with Garcia and soon they will be having more adventures of a criminal sort. Clauser gives his age as fourteen, but the officers say he is probably a year or two older.

MR. KIRK IN EAST

(Continued from Page One) from a visit to the doctor's parents in Glendale, our own Mr. and Mrs. Van Alstine of Riverdale Drive. They are charmed with Glendale and no doubt in future years will make their home with us. Before I forget I will also mention that I met our Dr. Van der Hoof at the Penn. station in Chicago, who says that our quondam fellow-townsmen, A. E. Hennion, is now floor-walker in the Furniture Department of Marshall Field & Co.

For a California treat I took a basket of fruit to my former business partner and friend in Chicago, consisting of a honey-dew melon, fresh figs, fresh dates, nectarines and grapes. They carried well and were joyfully welcomed but I was much surprised to find that the "honey-dews" are on display in every fruit store in Chicago and Washington, though costing two or three times as much as we pay for them. Of course, our Tokay grapes are a staple article in all Eastern cities, but the figs, dates and nectarines are not present.

I was pleased to find my former associate prospering in the brokerage and mill-agency business and his family as "natural" and well as ever.

He took me for a long drive through the principal sections of the city and it is marvelous what they are doing to beautify it and to utilize its natural advantages in the filling in of such large sections of the Lake front, the widening of Michigan avenue at its north end and the building of a double-deck bridge over the river, etc.

Immense hotels and apartment houses are going up everywhere.

It seemed a shame that I was not able to see the third game of the championship series which was played in Chicago that afternoon, but I couldn't arrange it, although seeing the crowds both going and coming and having a view of the interior of the Park after the game. The feeling in Chicago was that the Reds deserved to win after their struggle of 50 years for a pennant, so there were few regrets at the defeat of the Sox.
